APICS

THE EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY FOR RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

THE APICS REGIONS

A Definition of Roles and Relationships

As an administrative unit within the overall APICS organization, the Region serves the Society in the following specific ways:

1. The Region promotes management excellence and growth at the chapter level by providing training, recognition, and motivation for chapter officers.
 - at Region meetings, through new officer/ transition and by providing a forum for sharing success stories.
 - by sponsoring Train-The-Trainer sessions
 - by providing a forum for TEAM Workshop presentations
 - by promoting excellence (Passport, recruitment, student papers, Fit-to-Print)
 - by fostering inter-chapter cooperation and communication
 - by providing resources to strengthen chapter educational programs
2. The Region facilitates effective two-way communication between Chapters and Society leadership
 - through the publication of newsletters
 - by serving as a bridge or conduit between chapters and the Board of Directors
 - at Region meetings by providing an open forum for discussion
 - by communicating ways that chapters deliver education to their customer base
3. The Region assists Chapters and the Society as a whole to promote membership growth and retention by marketing APICS within local communities.
 - by allocating the skills and resources available through the Region Ambassador
 - by pinpointing market opportunities and other demographic indicators with the geographic confines of the Region
4. The Region evaluates chapter management, assists distress chapters, and directs the establishment of new chapters
 - by establishing care teams
 - through monitoring early warning signs of distress (non-attendance at Region meeting, weak or absent strategic planning initiatives)
 - periodic visitations at chapter professional development meeting and board meetings
 - ensuring that chapters meet minimum standards as outlined in the SOP
 - by investigating and mediating incidents of member dissatisfaction communicated to Society headquarters
5. The Region assists chapters in promoting academic liaison activities
 - by helping to establish new student chapters
 - by promoting the student paper competition
 - by training student leaders and advisors through the incorporation of student flights into Region meeting agendas.

APICS' Region 1 Chapters Present

SEMINAR

May 13 – 15, 2002

Best Western Royal Plaza, Marlboro, MA

Our Silver Milestone – Your Golden Opportunity

THE NEW ENGLAND CHAPTERS OF APICS
REGION 1
SEMINAR 1-2002

25TH A SILVER MILESTONE
AS AN EDUCATIONAL RESOURCE
YOUR GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

The 19 New England Chapters of APICS, The Educational Society for Resource Management are pleased to announce SEMINAR 1- 2002, our annual conference and solution provider/ supplier exposition, May 13-15, 2002 at the Best Western Royal Plaza Hotel, in Marlborough (Boston), Massachusetts- and invite your participation!

SEMINAR 1-2002 marks the 25th consecutive year that the 19 New England Chapters of APICS have sponsored this regional conference and exhibition. The Region has over 5000 members and customers; including representatives from many disciplines with Manufacturing, Distribution, and Service Industries, including Education. As a result of the Region's size and organizational profiles, Seminar 1 has historically attracted many companies that have diverse educational and operational requirements.

Representatives from your company may consider starting your SEMINAR 1 experience with some conference education, including an intensive course on the Basics of Supply Chain Management. Or perhaps experience the Train-The-Trainer session, with focus on fine tuning your presentation skills.

October 27-30, 2002 • Nashville, TN

Plug in to the Ultimate Power Source.

Fusion is education, training, and networking to empower individuals to positively affect enterprise success. Fusion is for professionals involved in identifying, planning, scheduling, executing, and controlling resources to produce products and services that provide customer satisfaction, support organizational goals, and increase competitive advantage. Open your invitation from the conference chair today! Join us in the Grand New Nashville. Contact us to request a brochure, receive updates via e-mail, or find out about exhibit, sponsorship, and advertising opportunities.

The Conference

General session speakers and industry experts will facilitate the fusion of cutting-edge information with eager, inquisitive minds. Educational sessions will help you discover how to meet your resource management challenges in collaboration, demand pipeline management, supplier relationship management, customer relationship management, global business strategies, and professional development.

The Exposition

Network with company representatives and colleagues, view cutting-edge products, and learn first-hand about the latest innovative technologies. The exhibit hall will host complimentary boxed lunches, coffee breaks, a networking reception, and the APICS Manufacturing Showcase Theater. Exhibitors and conference sponsors help make the APICS exposition the leading showcase for exclusive product debuts and presentations.
